About Us

All our products are handcrafted, as each of our lines are designed from an original idea by considering diverse elements, such as: clays glazes production techniques and firing processes, which give each line its unique personality.

While a mass production factory is able to produce a piece in less than an hour without ever been touched by human hands, the handcrafted process for a single ceramic piece may take up to 20 days, depending on its size, process and complexity. Therefore, the difference between one and the other is immense. Without under appreciating the quality of industrialized products, they lack the character, variation and originality that will always characterize handcrafted products. Our artisans use millenarian processes that are not easy to be replaced by technological advances.

Due to this handcrafted process, each piece is unique and the variation in appearance that exists is inherent to its production process. This catalog is just an approximation of the general character of each of our collections.

Acerca de Nosotros

Todos nuestros productos son fabricados semi artesanalmente, cada una de las colecciones son diseñadas desde su idea original considerando diversos elementos como: pastas, esmaltes, procesos de formado y de quema, brindando a cada línea un carácter único.

Mientras que un proceso industrial puede manufacturar una pieza en menos de una hora, sin haber nunca sido trabajada por manos humanas, el proceso artesanal puede llegar a tomar hasta 20 días por pieza, dependiendo de su tamaño, proceso y complejidad. Por tanto, la diferencia entre una y otra es inmensa. Sin menospreciar los productos industriales, estos carecen del carácter, la personalidad y originalidad que siempre tendrán los productos artesanales. Nuestros artesanos utilizan procesos milenarios; no es fácil que la tecnología reemplace el resultado de la genialidad humana.

Debido a este proceso artesanal, cada pieza es única y la variación que existe en apariencia es inherente a su proceso de producción. Este catálogo es apenas una aproximación del carácter general de cada una de nuestras colecciones.
